Dear Ms. Harpe and Ms. Kane:

Re Complaint regarding removal of Kristina Kane from Office of Ta'an Kwäch'än Chief

On February 6, 2015, the Ta'an Kwäch'än Judicial Council (TKJC) advised parties that, in determining whether to proceed further with Ms. Harpe's complaint noted above, the TKJC would need to determine how her complaint may be different from the matter recently heard by the TKJC (TKJC 14-02). Therefore, the TKJC sought written submissions from both the Complainant and Respondent as to the similarity of the factual and legal issues in both complaints and whether the TKJC should hear Ms. Harpe's complaint as if the Judicial Council were hearing it in the first instance.

Parties were invited to provide submissions to the TKJC by February 24, 2015. The TKJC received submissions from Jocelyn Barrett on behalf of Chief Kristina Kane. No further submission was submitted by Ms. Harpe.

The TKJC has considered all information received respecting this matter and finds that no new evidence, special circumstances or other reasons have been presented which were not dealt with in the decision respecting the matter TKJC 14-02 rendered on January 22, 2015. The lack of new or compelling grounds leaves the TKJC with essentially the same legal and factual issues previously heard and decided upon. Therefore, the TKJC will be taking no further action with respect to this complaint.

Sincerely,

TA'AN KWÄCH'ÄN JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Judge Barbara A. Evans
