- SUMMER/FALL GATHERINGS SET FOR TKC CITIZENS – August-September 2021

Ta'an Kwäch'än Council's Wellness and Development Departments are pleased to announce plans for upcoming 'on-the-land' gatherings set for the Summer and Fall of 2021 at Helen's Fish Camp. These include:

- Family Culture Camp, (August 5-8): This camp will run in place of the Summer Culture Camp out at Helen's Fish Camp. We are planning this camp as an overnight camp for families. Transportation will be provided to and from the camp as well as daily transportation for families who do not want to camp out. There will be a variety of cultural activities for families to participate in, and we will have boat rides across the lake to the Old Village; weather permitting. Wellness, Development and Lands Resources & Heritage departments are collaborating to ensure camping gear is available for families who do not have their own gear.
- Men's Camp (August 24-26): This day camp will allow for a maximum of 10 participants. There will be speakers on wellness and on-the-land teachings. The men will have a project to work on during the camp.
- Women's Camp (September 6-8): There will be a maximum of 10 participants. There will be speakers on wellness and on-the-land teachings.

For more information about these camps, please contact Thalia Hare, Income and Social Support Worker at (867) 668-3613 ext. 406 or email incomesupport@taan.ca.

- TRAPPER TRAINING WORKSHOP – August 26-30, 2021

TKC's Lands, Resources and Heritage Department has reserved three seats for Citizens to attend an upcoming Yukon Government Trapper Training workshop set to take place August 26-30. The 4.5-day training is to benefit anyone who would like to obtain a licence to trap. If you are interested in attending, or for more information please contact Barb Crawford, Education and Employment Training Coordinator at (867) 668-3613 ext. 410 or email training@taan.ca.

- DA DAGHAY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION (DDDC) CALLS ON SKILLED CITIZENS
