Dear Ms. Peters:

Re TKJC 16-06 Allocation of Representation of Traditional Families on the TKC

The Ta'an Kwäch'än Judicial Council (TKJC) received your letter of February 18, 2016 which was primarily a complaint regarding behaviour of the Maggie Broeren family at Ta'an Kwäch'än meetings, the GA and Ta'an Kwäch'än Council meetings. However, you also note a second issue that “there is unfair representation for all Traditional Families” and ask when and how this was changed.

We believe this question would be better asked of the Elders' Council and suggest that you direct your concerns and questions to the Chair of the Elder's Council for response.

While the TKJC has the ability to rule on the validity of a law or regulation and make recommendations for amendments, when asked, we do not have jurisdiction to change the Constitution.

In closing, thank you for your letter and note that this concern regarding family representation is not in the jurisdiction of the TKJC. This complaint is not accepted and the file is closed.

Sincerely,

TA'AN KWÄCH'ÄN JUDICIAL COUNCIL
