Application Package

TKC Scholarships & Bursary

The Ta'an Kwäch'an Council (TKC) supports and acknowledges Ta'an Citizens in the pursuit of excellence by providing annual student awards. Each year, the TKC Education Commission will award three TKC Scholarships and one TKC Bursary to sponsored students who are pursuing post-secondary studies, professional training programs or traditional pursuits.

APPLICATION CRITERIA

Applicants must be:

- a TKC Citizens who resides in Canada;
- in full-time studies;
- completing an academic or trades program from an accredited institution; OR
- completing a culturally-relevant program or traditional pursuit.

Applicants must provide:

- their most recent transcripts; and
- two letters of reference which speak to their personal character, their academic or cultural pursuits and/or their community involvement.

If applying for the TKC Bursary, the applicant must include a personal letter outlining their financial situation.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Complete application and all required documentation must be submitted prior to the deadline. Late applications will not be considered. The TKC Education Commission will review and award three scholarships and one bursary each year. Successful applicants will be notified and the awards will be sent directly to the successful applicants at the beginning of the fall semester.
