

TA'AN KWÄCH'ÄN COUNCIL

ELDERS FUEL SUBSIDY POLICY

Effective Date: February 7, 2015

Last Amended: October 3, 2024

- PURPOSE To define eligibility of the fuel subsidy, establish options to Elders households and provide guidelines for this policy.
- SCOPE Elders Heating Subsidy for permanent residency (On an Annual Basis January 1st through December 31st).
- POLICY To provide a fuel subsidy for a maximum of ($3000) per Elder household on an annual basis to Ta'an Elders residing in Canada.
- Applicants must submit a completed application form to the TKC Administration office.
- Applications must be submitted annually.
- Applicants will be informed, by the housing manager, in writing if further information is required.
- Once the application has been assessed, the applicant will be notified if accepted or the reason for ineligibility.
- PROCEDURE At the beginning of the calendar year, Ta'an Housing Department will issue a purchase order for the first fill up of Elders fuel tanks up to $800.00. Elders may access the remainder of their allocation by purchase order from Ta'an on a monthly basis up to the maximum ($3000) annually or by requesting reimbursement for heating fuel by submitting receipts, as proof of purchase every month, throughout the calendar year (January 1st to December 31st).
- Elders may receive a combination of heating fuel and fire wood upon request to a maximum of ($3000) annually. Ta'an Kwach'an Council will deliver wood to the Elders households through a Ta'an Citizen contracted to deliver wood, in the amount requested.
